

On the 100th anniversary of regaining the independence

On the 100th anniversary of Independence. Museum education about the times of the Second Polish Republic.

An event related to the commemoration of the 100th anniversary of Independence. Primarily addressed to families with children and youth groups.

On eight positions, functioning simultaneously, located in the town and two museum villages, museum educators will present extensive fragments of educational classes devoted to everyday life in the villages and towns of the Second Polish Republic. The values cultivated by the then reborn country and its citizens will be emphasized.

Museologists who have prepared props and elements of costumes will invite guests to joint actions - performing paratheatrical scenes, games and play.
