

SUMMER IN THE CITY

initiative of the City of Lublin

The Lublin Open Air Village Museum once again joins the "Summer in the City" event organised by the City of Lublin. As part of the initiative, the Museum has prepared a wide array of educational activities combined with visiting the Museum, which will take place from 17th to 28th of August 2020.

"Summer in the City" is an initiative addressed to school children and teenagers who stay in Lublin during the summer holidays. Free tourist events, sports and recreational activities in addition to day camps will be organised within the initiative. Thanks to such activities, children and teenagers can actively spend their free time in the city. The "Summer in the City" initiative will run from June 22nd to August 31st, 2020.
