

XXIII LUBLIN BREAD FESTIVAL

29th of September 2021

This Sunday 29th of September 2021, the Lublin Open Air Village Museum will host the XXIII Lublin Bread Festival. The event will be an excellent opportunity for bakery and confectionery craftsmen from the Lublin region to meet with consumers. The idea of the festival is to celebrate bread, which literally and symbolically constitutes the basis necessary for the survival of every human being. During the common celebration there will be no shortage of traditional baked goods and regional products.

Detailed programme is available on the event poster.
