

RIP ANNA MANDECKA

The Lublin Open Air Village Museum with great regret received the news of the death of Mrs. Anna Mandeka, a long-time guide of our Museum. Over the years, she shared her vast knowledge with visitors of the Lublin Open Air Village Museum with great passion and commitment. She was also actively involved in the educational activities of the Museum.

For the employees of the Lublin Open Air Village Museum, Anna Mandeka will always be remembered as a person open to other people, extremely kind and active.
