

THE XXIV LUBLIN BREAD FESTIVAL

On Sunday, September 4, 2022, the XXIV Lublin Bread Festival will take place at the Lublin Village Museum. This event is a great opportunity to meet the baking and confectionery craftsmen from the Lublin region. The concept of the event is to celebrate bread, which is a symbol of respect for hard work, abundance and hospitality. During the celebration, there will be traditional pastries or regional products, games and competitions.

This year's edition of the Lublin Bread Festival will be held under the slogan: "The impact of good food on the quality of vision". During the event, you will also be able to check your eyesight, consult qualified optometrists on the selection of glasses and take part in consultations on what food affects the quality of our eyesight.

In addition, on that day at the Lublin Village Museum, in a cottage from Żuków (Lublin Upland sector) from 10: 00-13: 00 there will be a demonstration of baking flatbread. At 13:30 we invite you to degustation.

Entrance tickets: PLN 20 (regular); PLN 10 (reduced)

The event is financed by the Lublin Province - "Lubelskie Taste Life" and the National Institute of Public Health.

Źródło: <https://skansen.lublin.pl/?p=21598>