

SONGS OF THE BORDERLAND FROM THE COLLECTION OF JAN IGNACIUK

Project co-financed by the Ministry of Culture and National Heritage

The Lublin Open Air Village Museum in Lublin received additional funding for the project "Borderland songs from the collection of Jan Ignaciuk in the Lublin Open Air Village Museum in Lublin".

This project will be subsidized by the Ministry of Culture and National Heritage as part of the Traditional and Folk Culture program. The project aims to popularize musical folklore from our compilation, collected by the documentalist of traditional rituals of Podlasie and our part of Polesie - Jan Ignaciuk. The partner in the project is the Institute of Cultural Sciences of UMCS and the Podlasie Heritage Association.

Details are coming soon!
