

Horse fair

A show based on the tradition of horse fairs organized during interwar period. Visitors will have the opportunity to see a scene of bargaining over the horse's price and the final litkup - the traditional glass of vodka after the transaction. The presented variety of human characters will make closer the atmosphere typical for such a kind of events. The fair will be also attractively by shows and presentations, including a test of horse strength - towing capacity.

Źródło: <https://skansen.lublin.pl/?p=25163>